Owens

Judy was born July 31, 1945, in Borger, Texas, to Harold and Margaret (Holroyd) Thompson. She grew up on the Holroyd family farm and was educated in Cedar Vale, graduating from Cedar Vale High School in 1964.

Judy worked at the Cedar Vale Hospital as a Certified Nursing Assistant and an x-ray technician. She also assisted with laser surgery for a number of years.

Judy married Doug Rock, and they later divorced. Two wonderful children, Alan David and Shanna Lee, were born to this union.

She later married James N. Owens in Pensacola, Fla. They lived there for several years before moving back to Cedar Vale. They later retired to Mission.

Judy brought much joy and happiness to those around her. Judy's smile and laughter were contagious. She loved planting and tending to flowers.

Judy was preceded in death by her grandparents, Madison and Lucille Holroyd; her parents, Harold and Margaret Thompson; and her brothers, Jerry Thompson and Kenny Thompson.

Survivors include her husband, James N. Owens Sr.; her sister, Martha Timblin; her brothers, Lynn Thompson and Mark Thompson; her son, Alan David Rock; her daughter, Shanna Lee Phillips; one grandson; and one great-grandson.
